

Press/News

Announcement:

INTERNATIONAL HARP ACADEMY
ACCEPTS APPLICATIONS FOR 2007 “HARP MASTERS” PROGRAM

Program designed for motivated harp students who want to further their professional development experiences.

Date: August 5-13, 2007

Location: Herzberg Convention Center/Aaru, Switzerland

Instructors: Professor Skaila Kanga, Royal Academy of Music (London)
Professor, Milda Agazarian, Russian Music Academy

Guest Artists: Park Stickney (United States)
Gwyneth Wentink, sponsored by the Victor Salvi Foundation
(Belgium)

Application: Please visit the Harp Masters website www.harpmasters.com or call +4131 921 5975 for more information including a downloadable copy of the application. Please note enrollment is limited to 16 participants.

The 2007 International Harp Academy’s “Harp Masters” program will offer daily masterclasses, ensemble rehearsals and solo and ensemble performance opportunities for the motivated harpist seeking to enhance their professional development experiences. Concerts and jazz workshops presented by the program’s guest artists will highlight the week’s programs. In addition, there will be harp-related lectures, interactive discussion on such important professional development topics as stage presence and performance, how to manage your life as a professional harpist and how to establish professional goals and stick to them. The program ends with a gala concert which will feature performances by all the participants.